Senate Bill 49 on Second Reading

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. B. No. 49, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 136 of Article 14 of Senate Bill 172, Chapter 421, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, by adding thereto a new subsection to be known as Subsection (d), providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of said Section 136; providing that this Act shall be cumulative; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Martin offered the following committee amendment to bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 49 by striking out all below the enacting clause, and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Section 136, Article 14 of Senate Bill 172, Chapter 421, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, be and the same is hereby amended so that in the future it shall read as follows:

(a) It shall be unlawful after the first day of January, 1948, for any person to sell any new motor vehicle nor shall the same be registered in this state, unless the doors, windows and windshields of such vehicle be equipped with safety glass wherever glass is used in doors, windows and windshields.

(b) It shall be unlawful after the first day of January, 1948, for any person to replace, or cause to be replaced, any glass in doors, windows or windshields in any motor vehicle, unless such replacement be made with safety glass as defined in this Act.

(c) The term "safety glass" as used in this Act shall mean any product composed of glass so manufactured, fabricated or treated as to substantially prevent shattering and flying of the glass when struck or broken.

House Bill 224 on Second Reading

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. B. No. 224, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing for the appointment of grand jury bailiffs in the counties having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) according to the last preceding or any future federal census; providing for compensation for grand jury bailiffs, providing for removal of such bailiffs; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Parkhouse offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. 224 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu therefor the following:

"Section 1. In all counties having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal census, the judges of the district courts to whom the grand jury reports may, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, appoint grand jury bailiffs not exceeding seven (7), whose compensation shall be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court; such compensation to be paid out of the general fund or jury fund in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, plus an automobile allowance to be set by the Commissioners Court of said counties.

"Sec. 2. Bailiffs thus appointed are subject to removal without cause at the will of the judge or judges appointing them.

"Sec. 3. The fact that there is no law authorizing the appointment of grand jury bailiffs in the counties having a population in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) or more inhabitants creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring that the constitutional rule which requires that bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and such rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be enforced from and after the date of its passage, and it is so enacted."

The committee amendment was adopted.

lature, Second Called Session, be and the same is hereby amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 27. The State Board of Barber Examiners shall convene not more than sixty days after the appointment of any member to said Board, and shall elect one of its members president, one of its members vice-president, and one of its members secretary, and shall select such employees as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act and H. B. 104 as amended. The Board shall provide for the compensation of such employees. Said Board shall provide and equip suitable quarters for the maintenance of its office in the City of Austin, Texas, and shall adopt rules and regulations for the transaction of the business herein provided for, including a common seal for the authentication of its orders, certificates and records. The secretary shall keep a record of all proceedings of the Board and shall be the custodian of all such records and shall receive and receipt for all money collected by the Board. All money so received shall be immediately deposited with the State Treasurer, who shall credit same to a special fund to be known as "State Board of Barber Examiners Fund" which money shall be drawn from said special fund upon claims made therefor by the Board to the Comptroller; and if found correct, to be approved by him and vouchers issued therefor, and countersigned and paid by the State Treasurer, which special fund is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying out all of the provisions of this Act. That annually at the close of business on August 31 of each year a complete report of the business transacted by the Board showing all receipts and disbursements shall be made by the Board to the Governor of the State of Texas.

The Secretary shall give a surety bond, payable to the State of Texas in the sum of $5,000.00, conditioned for the faithful performances of his duties as a secretary, to be approved by the Board and filed with the State Comptroller. A majority of the Board in meetings duly assembled may perform and exercise all the duties and powers devolving upon the Board.

The Secretary of the Board shall devote his full time to carrying out the duties of the office, and shall receive as compensation $6,000.00 per year, payable monthly, and the other two members of the Board shall receive as compensation a per diem of $20.00 a day for each day exclusive of Sunday, when performing their duties at the main office in Austin, Texas, and $20.00 per day inclusive of Sunday when performing their official duties when away from their main office at Austin, Texas, and in addition to their per diem provided for herein they shall be entitled to their actual traveling expenses. Each member shall make out under oath a complete itemized statement of the number of days engaged and the amount of their expense when presenting same for payment.

Senate Bill 260 on Second Reading

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. B. No. 260, A bill to be entitled "An Act to validate the establishment, organization, and/or creation of all Junior College Districts as extended by annexations of other school districts whose areas have been added to the original Junior College District; etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator McDonald offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 260 by striking out all below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. All junior college districts, whether established, organized and/or created, or attempted to be established, organized and/or created by vote of the people residing in such districts, or by action of the county school boards, or by action of the county judge, or by action of the commissioners' courts, or by action of State educational officers or agencies, or by a combination of any two or more of the same, which districts have heretofore been recognized by either State or county authorities as junior college districts, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally established in the first instance.

"Sec. 2. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the provisions of Section 1, all additions of territory to or detachments of territory from such junior college districts are hereby in all things validated, whether the same were accomplished or attempted to be accomplished by action of the county school boards, or by action of the county judge, or by action of the commissioners' court, or by action of State educational officers or agencies, or by vote of the people residing in such territory, or by a combination of any two or more of the same.

"Sec. 3. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the provisions of Section 1, the boundary lines of all such junior college districts and the names of all such junior college districts are hereby in all things validated.

"Sec. 4. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the provisions of Section 1, all acts of the governing boards of such junior college districts ordering an election or elections, declaring the results of such elections, levying, attempting or purporting to levy taxes for and on behalf of such districts, and all bonds issued and now outstanding, and all bonds heretofore voted but not yet issued, and all tax elections, bond elections, and bond assumption elections are hereby in all things validated. All revenue bonds issued and outstanding and all revenue bonds authorized but not yet issued for and on behalf of such districts are hereby in all things validated.

"Sec. 5. This law shall not apply to any district which is now involved in litigation in any district court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization or creation of such district or of the addition of territory to or detachment of territory from such districts is attacked, or to any district involved in proceedings now pending before the State Board of Education in which proceedings the validity of the organization or creation of such district or of the addition of territory to or detachment of territory from such district is attacked. This act shall not apply to any district which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State.

"Sec. 6. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction in this State to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this Act.

"Sec. 7. The fact that the legal existence of various junior college districts may be questioned, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The committee amendment was adopted.

Certification of the Twenty-second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States Ordered Printed in the Journal

Senator Kelly of Tarrant asked unanimous consent of the Senate to print in the Journal the Certification of the Twenty-second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States issued by the Administrator of General Services on March 1, 1951.

There was no objection offered.

ADMINISTRATOR OF GENERAL SERVICES, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

KNOW YE, That the Congress of the United States, at the first session, Eightieth Congress begun at the City of Washington on Friday, the third day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, passed a Joint Resolution in the words and figures as follows: to wit—

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States:

"Article—

"Section 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

"Sec. 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress."

And, further, that it appears from official documents on file in the General Services Administration that the Amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed as aforesaid has been ratified by the Legislatures of the States of Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

And, further, that the States whose Legislatures have so ratified the said proposed Amendment, constitute the requisite three-fourths of the whole number of States in the United States.

NOW, therefore, be it known that I, Jess Larson, Administrator of General Services, by virtue and in pursuance of Section 160, Title 5, of the United States Code and Reorganization Plan No. 20 of 1950 (15 F. R. 3178), do hereby certify that the Amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the General Services Administration to be affixed. DONE at the City of Washington this 1st day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

In Memory of
Mr. Weaver Barnett

Senator Vick offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 173)

Whereas, On the sixteenth day of April in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-one, God, in His infinite wisdom, did see fit to call from this earth one of the outstanding civic leaders of our state and a member of the Texas Board of Special Schools and Hospitals, Mr. Weaver Barnett; and

Whereas, Our friend and public servant has moved to higher rewards, and his name has been entered in the Book with those who loved and served their Country, State and Fellow Man; and

Whereas, His record of public service is so notable it is but fitting for us to point out some of the incidents of that career; and

Whereas, For the past thirty years Mr. Barnett served on the board of directors of the Mexia Chamber of Commerce and was a past president of that organization. He was president of the First Presbyterian Church board of Mexia, Texas.

He was appointed to the State Board of Special Schools and Hospitals by the late Governor Beauford Jester and worked hard for the improvement of the State Schools and Hospitals; and

Whereas, During World War I he served overseas as a Red Cross worker; and

Whereas, He was a director of the First National Bank of Mexia and chairman of the Limestone County Road Committee, being one of the first Central Texas citizens to work for a better road program; and

Whereas, The many contributions of Weaver Barnett to both community and State shall ever keep his memory with us; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the State of Texas, that we do here and now pay tribute to the memory of this good and righteous Christian gentleman and point with pride to his many achievements, and that we extend our sincere sympathy to his widow, his daughter, Mrs. Frank Connell of Mexia, Texas, and other members of the family in this hour of bereavement; that a copy of this Resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate; that copies be sent to surviving members of the family; and that when the Senate stands adjourned today, it do so in respect to the memory of this outstanding citizen of the State of Texas, Weaver Barnett.
